It has been a while since 1830 when a magnificent inn was built by the gates of Munich. Old records show that this inn was widely renowned for its cuisine and hospitality, and it soon became a popular destination for excursions. At that time, 170 years ago, a tradition was established which has been maintained and continued by the Bauer family over three generations. With a great deal of thought and attention to detail the inn was turned into a highly sophisticated four-star hotel which combines the original Bavarian charm of yesteryear with modern day comforts.

Its easily accessible location and the wide range of accommodation have made Hotel Bauer one of the best known venues for meetings and conferences in the Munich area. And for those of you who fancy sampling our excellent cuisine, our restaurant team looks forward to preparing a range of Munich delicacies and international specialities for your delectation.
